

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Burns & McDonnell India Ranks No. 56 on the 2022 Best Companies to Work For List

MUMBAI, India — Burns & McDonnell India, part of Burns & McDonnell, is gaining national recognition for its workplace operations and culture. Coming in at No. 56, the firm has now made India's Best Companies to Work For list for the last six years in a row.

To earn this recognition, Burns & McDonnell India had to exceed Great Place to Work standards, which evaluate how workplace culture incorporates credibility, camaraderie, respect, pride and fairness. The Great Place to Work Institute identifies places of work based on employee feedback and workplace practices.

This year's employee survey found that 95% of its employees feel Burns & McDonnell India is a safe place to work and 92% agree that the facilities and celebrations contribute to a great working environment. The survey found 94% participants are proud to work at BMI and feel great about how the company contributes to society.

"We are so grateful for our dedicated employee-owners who have helped us achieve a ranking on this list for the sixth year in a row," says Chad Hotovec, CEO and director of operations for Burns & McDonnell India. "Burns & McDonnell India is continuously growing its amazing team of individuals that provide high-quality solutions for our clients. It's an honor to make this list and our employee-owners make working at Burns & McDonnell a one-of-a-kind experience."

Established in 2013 in Mumbai, Burns & McDonnell India is a full-service engineering company with multidisciplinary capabilities across oil and gas, chemical and petrochemical, transmission and distribution, energy/power, environmental services, and food and consumer product sectors. During the past few years, Burns & McDonnell India has more than doubled the size of its team.
